Soviet fighter pilots, meanwhile, have been operating out of Cuban bases for years. Disturbingly, they don't appear to be in Cuba merely to train Cuoan pilots. In a report classified "Secret Spoke," the Defense Intelligence Agency has noted: "There has. , been very little interplay between the Soviet and Cuban pilots, and the Soviet flight activity appears to be independent'of Cuban operations?

Intelligence sources told my associate Sally Denton that 5,000 Soviet combat troops are now based in Cuba -, double the number that precipitated an international tempest last September and October. President Carter announced that the presence of a Soviet combat, brigade 90 miles from our shores was unacceptable.

"The thing that concerns us," he declared, "is that it is a combat unit. The " Soviets deny it has combat status. But it is a combat unit." He threatened sternly to "take appropriate action." But the Soviets called his bluff, and . Carter backed down. "The brigade

As the intelligence experts understand what happened inside the Kremevents have brought a sudden chill to Soviet-American relations. :

Meanwhile, the number of Soviet infantrymen not only has multiplied but military activity has increased alarmingly in Cuba. One ominous report claims that nuclear construction has started near Cientuegos and that the Soviet troops in Cuba previously had: protected nuclear installations in East Germany.
Another secret intelligence Ap-
